The Goodrich Murder Still a Mystery—A Malpractice Case Dismissed—The Atlantic National Bank Defalcation—Officers of the Chamber of Commerce Re-Elected—The Crispin Strike.

NEW YORK, May 1, 1873.

The Crispins' Strike.

A visit to several of the representative shoe dealers does not confirm the representations of the Crispins on a strike. Many of the dealers mentioned as having conceded the terms demanded, say that they only consented conditionally on all their branch of trade agreeing. The trade is now said to be very dull, and there will be no difficulty in obtaining substitutes for the strikers.

A Malpractice Case Dismissed.

The Averill Kolls malpractice case was tried in Brooklyn to-day. Mrs. Averill was called to the stand and made some very contradictory statements. She denied ever having been in Albion.

Sheriff Van Camp, of Orleans county, testified that Mrs. Averill was under indictment at Albion, and produced a bench warrant for her arrest. She will be taken to Albion for trial. The charge against Mrs. Kolls was dismissed.

JOURNALISM.

The Journalists of Indiana in Convention—Brilliant Address by Henry Watterson

INDIANAPOLIS, May 1.—The Indiana Press Convention met here to-day. The attendance was quite large, and the session promises to be unusually interesting. The chief feature of the day's proceedings was a brilliant address, on American Journalism, by Henry Watterson, of the Louisville Courier-Journal. The address was somewhat lengthy but was full of snap and vigor and created a decided sensation. Mr. Watterson, after an humorous allusion to the convention as a mutual admiration society, a natural brotherhood of those engaged in one great work—proceeded to discuss literature and journalism, in which he complimented American journalism as the best in the world. The English Press and the American Press were reviewed. Personal journalism touched upon, the responsibilities of journalism, the newspaper as it was and is, the city Press and county Press, the battle before the Press, and the independence of the Press were all discussed tersely, and in a most entertaining manner. The address abounded in practical suggestions and was well received.

HARRISBURG, PA., May 1.—The Republican State Central Committee met this afternoon, and decided to hold the State Convention in Harrisburg on the 13th of August.

The Constitutional Convention.

Judiciary Article Considered—Memorial from Prominent Members of the Philadelphia Bar—Convention Invited to Hold Summer Session at Bedford.

TUESDAY'S AFTERNOON PROCEEDINGS.

In the Constitutional Convention, on Tuesday afternoon, Mr. John N. Purviance, of Butler, delivered a written argument in opposition to the Circuit Court provision, or any radical change of the present judicial system. He favored an increase of the Supreme Court Judges to seven, in order to provide for a Nisi Prius Court at Pittsburgh and Philadelphia, and five Judges to be always on the bench.

The debate was participated in by Messrs. Craig, Cuyler, Mitchel, Meredith, Armstrong, and Buckalew.

The amendment of Mr. Purviance, of Allegheny, to amend Mr. Woodward's amendment by striking out the provision for a Circuit Court, was then agreed to—52 to 22.

On motion of Mr. McKaine, of Fayette, the provision for district courts was stricken out, and the amendment of Mr. Woodward, of Philadelphia, was adopted as a substitute for the section, as follows: The judicial power of this Commonwealth shall be vested in a supreme court, in courts of common pleas, in courts of oyer and terminer and general jail delivery, in courts of quarter sessions of the peace, in orphans' courts, in justices of the peace, and in such other courts as the Legislature may from time to time establish.

Upon the second section, regulating the manner of constituting the Supreme Court, Mr. Purviance, of Allegheny, offered the following as a substitute:

The Supreme Court shall consist of nine members. The State shall be divided into three districts—Eastern, Middle and Western—as nearly equal in population as may be, in each of which three judges shall be elected, whose term of office shall be fifteen years, but who shall be ineligible to re-election. The judges of each district shall sit in banc within their districts, commencing on the first Monday of December of each year, and remaining until they have gone through with their respective lists, the decisions made in each district to be suspended until reviewed. The judges of the three districts shall, on the first Monday of May of each year, and as often as they may designate, at the seat of their Middle district, hold a court of review, in which opinions previously written, and before being promulgated, shall be reviewed and finally disposed of.

Until otherwise directed by law, the Eastern district shall be composed of the city of Philadelphia and the counties of Berks, Northampton, Lehigh, Bucks, Montgomery, Chester and Delaware; the Middle district, all the other counties east of the Allegheny Mountains; the Western district, all the counties west of the Allegheny Mountains, including Somerset, Cambria, Elk, Clearfield, and McKean.

Mr. Woodward moved to amend so as to substitute for the election of the judges a provision for their appointment by the Governor and confirmation by two-thirds of the Senate.

At this point the committee rose.

The Chair laid before the convention a memorial signed by many prominent members of the Philadelphia bar. It was read, as follows:

To the Constitutional Convention of Pennsylvania:

In consequence of a suggestion from a member of the Convention a meeting of some of the members of the bar of Philadelphia was held, and after consulting with others of the profession and with the Judges of the County Courts, we venture to address your honorable body upon the proposed changes of the judiciary system, so far as respects this county. It is the desire of all these Judges, and we believe also of the bar of this city, that the Courts of the county should remain as they now are, both in organization and jurisdiction. We have heard no sufficient reason suggested for any change, while there are many, and weighty ones, opposed to it.

When the enormous amount of business that must be transacted by these courts is considered, it is obvious that there must be a division of labor, and that it is impossible that one man can adapt himself readily to the various departments of jurisprudence.

The necessity of certainty in practise to facilitate business is well known, and that no two courts can be expected to preserve uniformity in this. The proposed plan would necessarily introduce as many systems as courts. The traditions of the courts, which are greatly prized, and very valuable, will be broken up, and it will be long ere it will be possible for the bar or the community to adapt themselves to the new system or ascertain its consequences.

The memorial was laid on the table.

At a late hour the Convention adjourned.

THURSDAY'S MORNING SESSION.

A special to the Telegraph says a number of memorials were presented, asking that Almighty God be recognized in the Constitution.

Mr. Russell, of Bedford, presented the following:

Resolved, That the honorable Constitutional Convention of Pennsylvania be and they are hereby respectfully invited to hold their summer session at Bedford, and that the audience room of the Evangelical Lutheran church be tendered them as a place of meeting.

Mr. Howard, of Allegheny, moved to accept the invitation; seconded by Mr. Mann, of Potter.

Gen. White, of Indiana, moved to postpone the matter. Agreed to by a large majority.

The Convention then went into Committee of the Whole on the judiciary report, General White in the chair. The debate on the second section and amendments thereto was resumed.

Messrs. John N. Purviance, Ewing, Worrell, M. G. Smith, Bowman, Palmer and Landis favored the election of Judges by a popular vote, while Messrs. Curry, Broomall and Smith, of Allegheny, were in favor of placing the appointment in the hands of the Governor.

The Convention then took a recess till three o'clock.

AUSTRIA.

Opening of the World's Exhibition.

VIENNA, May 1.—The Exhibition was inaugurated to-day by the Emperor of Austria, in the presence of the members of the Imperial family, royal and illustrious guests and State and civic dignitaries. The weather was unfavorable, but the crowds of people from all parts of the world who witnessed the imposing ceremonies were immense, filling the rotunda and transepts of the building and portions of the ground rounding it.

Arrival of the Imperial Party.

At noon Emperor Francis Joseph entered the rotunda with the Crown Princess Victoria, of Germany, on his arm. He was followed by the German Crown Prince Frederick William, who escorted the Empress Augusta. After these came the eldest son of the Prince, accompanied by the Prince Imperial of Austria.

The Emperor took a seat on the throne, when the combined bands, numbering several hundred musicians, performed the Austrian Hymn, which was succeeded by a Prussian anthem, amid the cheers of the multitude.

Address of the Arch Duke Charles.

The Arch Duke Charles then rose, and, addressing the Emperor, said: "Sire—Filled with gladness I salute your Majesty in these halls, devoted to progress and to peace. Your participation has fitly brought to completion a work which now draws upon Austria the eyes of the world, and has secured for the fatherland full recognition of the part she takes in the promotion of the welfare of mankind through the instruction of labor. May it please your Majesty graciously to receive this catalogue, and to declare the Exhibition open."

Address of the Emperor.

The Emperor, receiving the casket containing the catalogue, replied: "With lively satisfaction I behold the completion of this undertaking, the importance and significance of which I appreciate in the highest degree. My confidence in the patriotism and capability of my people and in the sympathy and support of friendly nations has accompanied the development of that great work. My well-wishes and grateful recognition are devoted to its termination. I declare the Universal Exhibition of 1873 opened."

Address of Prince Von Auersperg.

Prince Von Auersperg, President of the Council of the Empire, advancing to the foot of the throne, addressed the Emperor as follows: "Sire—With feelings of modesty, and at the same time of exultation and pride, the people of Austria gaze upon a work which testifies to the increasing power of and the growing esteem for the fatherland and to its active participation in the great task of culture. We owe this work entirely to you. It is the embodiment of your motto, 'Power and respect come from union, which is strength.' We therefore lay our efforts at the foot of the throne."

Address of the Burgomaster.

The Prince was followed by Dr. Folder, the Burgomaster of Vienna, who expressed the gratitude of the people of the capital to His Majesty, and added: "Under your Government Vienna has become a metropolis. You now confer the highest consecration upon an undertaking, whose noble purpose is to show what the human mind in every zone is capable of achieving in mechanics, science and art, so that progress may become common property and be fostered and furthered by the co-operation of all rivalries of invention and dexterity. With the blessing of peace among nations, this sublime creation has arisen, immortalizing the history of culture in Austria. The city of Vienna, whose lot it is to welcome hospitably visitors from all quarters of the globe, feels proud and elated under the gracious Imperial protection, and inspired with gratitude, rings forth the words: 'God protect our country! Long live the Emperor!'"

The cry was taken up by thousands of voices and re-echoed from all parts of the building. The ceremonies closed with a chorus "See the Conquering Hero Comes," sung by the united musical societies and choirs of the city. The Emperor and Empress, followed by distinguished personages, then traversed the western and eastern wings of the Exhibition building, being received everywhere with thunders of applause. Having completed the circuit of the exhibition, they departed amid salvos of artillery and the cheers of immense crowds gathered outside of the building.

The American department ramains in confusion, but Minister Jay is endeavoring to repair the effects of previous mismanagement.

GREAT BRITAIN.

Funeral Obsequies of Bishop McIlvaine.

NEW YORK, May 1.—The London Echo of April 19th contains an account of the special service the previous afternoon, in Westminster Abbey, as a mark of respect to the memory of the late Right Rev. C. P. McIlvaine, Bishop of Ohio. The Bishop's remains were brought from Italy the Monday previous, and placed in Islip chapel. This chapel, which is unknown to occasional visitors to the Abbey, was plainly carpeted with black baize. The chief mourner was the daughter of the late Bishop. Mr. Moran, Secretary of the United States Legation, who represented General Schenck; also, Col. Chesebrough, Assistant Secretary of the Legation, Mrs. and Miss Julia Schenck, General Badeau, United States Consul, General T. Parker, Rev. W. A. Lamson, Cyrus Field, F. Evans, Rev. Mr. and Mrs. Morgan, of Paris, T. B. Caddington and Miss Caddington, of New York, the Bishop of Peterborough, Rev. Newman Hall, Rev. Thomas Binney, and Dr. John Gardner, of New York, assembled at the Abby shortly after four o'clock. There were also present the Earl of Shaftsbury, the Earl of Harrowby, Hon. Arthur Kinnaid, M. P. The mourners assembled at the Poet's corner. The funeral procession was shortly afterwards formed and proceeded by the South aisle up by the choir to a spot under the lantern, where the coffin was placed on trestles. The funeral service was commenced by Rev. Canon Conway, after which the choir gave the Easter day anthem in a most impressive manner. The concluding portion of the service was read by Dean Stanley, and after the burial service hymn had been sung the blessing was pronounced by the Dean. The pall bearers were B. Moran, Secretary of the United States Legation, Earl of Harrowby, Dr. Gurst, Rev. John Summer J. W. Cater, Mr. Puleston and Mr. Haldane. At the conclusion of the service the corpse of the Right Reverend deceased was removed to the chapel of St. Faith, from whence it was taken at a later hour in the evening to be conveyed to Liverpool, and to be afterward taken to Ohio.

SPAIN.

The Insurrection.

MADRID, May 1.—The Carlists continue to burn railway stations, tear up tracks, and destroy telegraph wires. The military operations are much restricted by the activity of the troops, and the Government is sanguine the insurrection will soon be suppressed. A telegram from Carvers, near Barcelona, announces that the troops had come up with and defeated Don Alfonzo's band of Carlists in that vicinity.

LONDON, May 1.—Later advices from Spain show that the rumor of the shooting of the Cure of Santa Cruz is false.

Several engagements are reported between small parties of Carlists and Republicans. The Carlist chieftains Dorregarry and Lissaraga, with 3,000 men, have moved into the Valley of Bostan. The exhaustion of the resources of the country renders frequent movements necessary.

Resignation of Senor Acosta as Minister of War.

The total number of bodies thus far recovered is 349.

Much astonishment is expressed here because of the suspension of work on the new cable. The suspension is said to be in consequence of the recent amalgamation by the cable company.

Danish Emigrants for the United States.

A number of Danish emigrants, recently brought out by the New Brunswick Government, have left for the United States.

CANADA.

The Fisheries Question.

OTTAWA, May 1.—In the House of Commons last night Mills moved a resolution that before the arbitration to take place under the terms of the treaty of Washington be entered upon, it is proper that the limits of the Dominion and jurisdiction should be decided.

Sir John MacDonald, in opposition to the motion, advanced a plea that it would prevent Canada from obtaining any compensation for the twelve years the treaty lasted, as the Americans would not concede their view of the fishery limits. He admitted that the Commissioners appointed to conduct the arbitration could only arrive at a very rough estimate of the sum due, and said that communications were passing between the Canadian and Imperial governments on the subject of head-land rights, and that the question would probably be referred to international jurists for a decision.

Earthquake Shock.

CORNWALL, May 1.—A distinct shock of earthquake was felt here and at Cotean Landing last night.

A Financial Crisis Imminent in Cuba.

HAVANA, April 28.—It is feared that in case of a further decline in sugar abroad and exchange here, many prominent foreign and domestic houses will be compelled to suspend.

The commander politely asked the authorities to deliver O'Kelly to him, promising to carry O'Kelly to Jamaica and guaranteeing that he should not return to Cuba. The Manzanilla authorities consulted Captain General Pieltain by telegraph, who answered that it was impossible to grant the commander's request, that he was powerless to alter the laws of the country, and that the trial must proceed according to law.

Both Houses suspended their sittings, as requested.

THE Kansas Legislature have had a somewhat difficult time in getting a Senator in Congress, of average purity and ability. We suggest to them, seriously, that if they will elect Josiah Copley Esq., who years ago left this city and settled in Kansas, they will have an honest man, and an able and upright Senator.

WE ONCE again remind our citizens, members of the Republican party, that the primary meetings are close at hand, and that it is important to carefully determine who will be selected to represent the various wards in the Convention soon to be held. The first movement of a political canvass is all-important, as it determines who shall be the standard-bearers. We earnestly hope that our citizens generally will attend the primaries, in order to aid in the selection of delegates to the various Conventions.

THE Harrisburg Telegraph explains, in answer to our inquiry on the subject, that the motion to reconsider what is known as the "Buckalew bill," which provided for a special vote to decide upon the work of the Constitutional Convention, was made before the bill was messaged back from the Senate. Now the question comes up, was this bill in possession of the House when the motion to reconsider was made? If not messaged over from the Senate, it was, in our view, in possession of the Senate, and could not be acted on by the House. We repeat our question.

THE WILL of Napoleon, as given in full, is a brief document, and was drawn up in April, 1865. As a commentary on the fluctuating character of human success, it stands conspicuous. He bids his son study and ponder the words of him who died on St. Helena, and refers to the spirit of his great uncle as watching over him. Yet the will containing these allusions is probated in England. He desires the Empress to reside at the Elysee and Biarritz,—yet she is proscribed from France. Sad must have been the thoughts with which the Emperor approached death at Chiselhurst.

THE DEATH of James Brooks will be received with regret, particularly in view of the troubles that gathered about his closing days. He was a high-toned gentleman, an elegant speaker, and his writings were possessed of more than ordinary merit. His career in life has been a highly honorable one, and had he lived, he doubtless would have given greater proof of his ability to deal with public issues than ever before. We say this, particularly, in view of his expressions in defending himself from the charges that were brought against him on the Credit Mobilier account. Amiable, cultivated, gentlemanly, he rose above the average politician—and we attribute to his sensitiveness at the imputations upon his honor, his rapid decline and death.

YESTERDAY was the opening day of the Vienna Exposition. It is generally understood that the building was not in readiness, except the rotunda, when the opening exercises took place. Despite this, a very great interest was felt in the opening ceremonies, and the attention of the entire civilized world has been attracted to this great display of industry. These International Expositions are illustrative of the spirit of the age. The era of labor has been fairly inaugurated, and the entire world pays reverence to the new spirit that rules the age. For a brief moment, royalty, with its flash and glitter will be seen, then the workman and the fruits of his industry, will be the center of attraction. The gathering of representatives of the nations, the fraternal spirit of the occasion, the comparisons that will be made in the arts, all these will develop a kinship among the people, difficult of achievement in any other manner. We wish the greatest success to the Exposition, as its triumph will serve to give a greater impetus to the Centennial Exposition that will be held in this country in 1876.

THE terrible defeat, sustained by our troops operating against the Modocs, among the lava beds, is likely to lead to an entire change in the method of dealing with the Indians in time of war. Experienced Indian fighters,—persons who have an accurate knowledge of the habits of Indians, and who will avail themselves of their methods of fighting—large numbers of these have offered their services, and it is intimated that Sherman is inclined to accept the offer. The difficulty with regular troops is, that they are accustomed to move, at word of command, in conformity with a system of tactics laid down in the books, and hence are peculiarly liable to be cut off by Indians, looking behind the masses of lava. It is proposed to use the troops to surround the lava beds, thus prevent the escape of the Indians, while the others ferret them out and kill them. This certainly is a much better plan than that of exposing our troops to a murderous fire where they cannot defend themselves. While the subject is fresh, we submit the question why are Indians furnished with so murderous weapons as Spencer rifles? Do they need them to rapidly kill game?

ON the twentieth of May, the new internal revenue law will go into effect. The office of Assessor and Assistant Assessor will expire on that day, and the duties attaching to them will be performed by the collectors of the several districts. Duties must be paid by the purchaser of stamps, and this without the personal notification. Where the duties of the Collector demand it, he is permitted to have an Assistant, to be paid out of the commissions received. It is at just this point that some danger is feared. Scores of the revenue assessors, whose lease of official life is cut short, have made application to Secretary Richardson to be appointed to position as Assistant Collectors under the new law. The Secretary, however, justly holds that such action on his part would be but an evasion of the law, and would perpetuate the very evils for the eradication of which the act was passed. As we have already intimated, the appointment of Assistant Collectors will, in some cases, be necessary; and, when such action shall prove to be required, it will be eminently proper that the ex-Collectors, who are fitted by experience for the position, shall be appointed. But the country will recognize the justice of the position taken by Secretary Richardson, and the most of the applicants for new places will be forced to withdraw their claims.

ELEMENTARY PRINCIPLES.

We received, a day or two since, a private letter, criticising very earnestly a remark of ours, to the effect that the "people have the right, and will use their own choice as to the manner in which they will avail themselves of the fruits of their labors." This remark, which is spoken of as "novel," is contained in an editorial which, while it admits the importance of manufactories and dense populations in the agricultural sections of the west, as a means of bringing producer and consumer near to each other, thus solving, in part, the problem of freights,—suggests that time will be needed to realize this very important idea. Also, that pending this necessary lapse of time, the railroads should do their best to accommodate agriculturalists. We instanced the Illinois Central as the offending railroad, thus intimating that our references were to local freights, and for short distances, and did not refer to the transportation of the products of the great West to our seaboard cities. We have so frequently stated the elementary principles involved, that we had the temerity to think that we could treat a subject more broadly, and not need to refer constantly to well-settled, fundamental laws, in relation to trade. Yet our correspondent sends us a brief item, showing that Joliet, Illinois, has an iron and steel works—the implication being that we ought to be convinced that what Joliet has done, other western towns can do. Now it so happens that several months ago, we mentioned, editorially, what our correspondent does not seem to know, that Joliet had offered and paid a large premium to have those works established there, and we urged that other western towns follow the example, as the gathering of large populations, and the development of manufactories provided home markets for produce, thus contributing to the general prosperity. In order, however, to save ourselves further trouble in this direction, we will briefly state our understanding, as to certain elemental principles, bearing on this question of transportation.

1. We fully and unequivocally believe that the nearer the producer and consumer are brought to each other, the better and more profitable it is for both parties. It would be absurd for a Pennsylvania journal to believe any thing else. Our entire theory of protection to home industry is based on this fundamental law. Protection means the development of manufactures, the concentration of population, the consumption of home products, both agricultural and manufactured. It is intended to prevent the transportation of raw material over three thousand miles of ocean, and the importation, at increased expense, of the manufactured article. More than this, we believe the time is coming when the Great West will be as much interested in this doctrine as we are now. The principle is of universal application. Hence, when western towns manufacture their iron, and construct their agricultural machinery, they will find it to their interest to sell their corn, rye, and other productions of the farm at home. And the sooner this is done, the more rapid their advance in prosperity.

2. We readily admit that the more compact the material that must be freighted to a market, the greater the relative profit. Thus if corn is transformed into pork, and hay into beef, it will cost relatively less to send it to market. We will even go farther, and admit that wheat and rye, potatoes and even pork and beef may be transformed into mowing machines, reapers, ploughs and cultivators, by being used to feed the men who mine ore, smelt it into iron, and manufacture the iron into useful shapes. In either case, the principle is the same. To admit this, is about equivalent to the admission that white is white. The only question involved would be, whether if this course were generally adopted the profit on pork and beef might not eventually compare closely with that of grain. Still, this does not impair the theoretical correctness of the above proposition.

3. We fully believe that there is a limit to the profitable transportation of any article of production. Where it costs a dollar to get a dollar's worth of corn, wheat, rye, pork, beef or anything else to market, it cannot be transported profitably. This is also a self-evident proposition. It does not matter whether this transportation extends over one hundred or one thousand miles of territory, the principle is the same. Having said this much, we hope we will be understood when we also submit a few other self-evident propositions.

We submit that to develop manufactures, concentrate dense populations, or in any way to realize the condition of producer and consumer, contiguous to each other in the West, requires time. Deposits of ore must be searched out, capital developed, or wealth as a basis for gathering capital, before large towns or industries can be built up. We are perfectly willing to say to the people, "Go West—build towns, develop industries,"—but we know that this will be done in conformity with certain well-known laws. Let it be seen that employment can be had, or that capital can be well invested, and the desired result is sure to follow. If other Western towns will do as Joliet did, they may have the same advantages, provided they are located favorably for manufactures. But as a rule, towns and cities will grow, and growth requires time.

We also submit that any or all of these things have nothing whatever to do with the rate that shall be charged by railroads. We mean by this, the justness of certain charges. Railroads are chartered institutions, having for their object the earning of a fair revenue on the capital invested, but chiefly the convenience of the people. They have a perfect right to so adapt their charges as to realize a fair net income. Where the business is relatively small, the rates for freight and passengers are usually relatively high; but where the business of the railroad is up to its average capacity, it is not difficult to know what a fair charge is. Our correspondent admits that corn is being transported from the west at a cent a ton per mile. At this rate, a ton of corn can be taken from Omaha to New York for fourteen dollars, the distance being one thousand four hundred miles,—and this would be forty-three cents per bushel. Corn was quoted, yesterday, in New York, at seventy-one cents per bushel,—thus leaving a margin of twenty-eight cents on each bushel for the producer, if we do not count commissions and the like. But this is an extreme case,—and we only refer to it because of our correspondent selecting it for an example. Our views, all along have been, and now are, that it is the duty of the railroads to co-operate with the people, in developing wealth, and concentrating population. But the road we instanced,—the Illinois Central,—undeniably robs the farmers, by its extortionate charges.

We will add that agricultural productions should seek their nearest market, and we believe, where proper facilities are afforded, they will do this. The anxiety of the great West for water communication with the seaboard has been developed by the fact that they could not get their productions even to Chicago, except at a ruinous sacrifice. We have not examined the subject in detail, from original information, but the Committee of Commerce reported to Congress, at near the close of its recent session, that the cereals of the far West can, by a system of canals, be moved to the seaboard, and thence by sea to England, at from twenty-eight to thirty cents per bushel. The overabundance of supply in a given market we regard as a simple incident of trade that will regulate itself, from time to time. To-morrow we may consider more closely the duties of railroads, in fostering the growth and convenience of the West.

Napoleon's Will.

The last will and testament of Napoleon III. is a singular document, charged with "Napoleonic ideas," and containing very little besides. The paper was drawn on the 24th of April, 1865—just eight years ago, when the Emperor was at the height of his glory and his power, master of France and the arbiter of the destinies of Europe. Yet he warned his son, with much solemnity, in a striking passage of his will, that "power is a heavy burden," and he became serious in the contemplation of the difficulties encountered by a good man in attempting to do his duty. The whole tone of the exhortation to the Prince Imperial is that of a man penetrated with a sense of the instability of earthly grandeur, and not altogether certain of his own position. The Emperor was contrite for some of his sins—not for all—and firm in the belief that he had been "inspired and sustained" by the soul of his illustrious uncle. But there is no Napoleon IV. to profit by fatherly counsel—only a young gentleman in private life, who shares with the ex-Empress a fortune of unexpectedly moderate dimensions.

Unhorsing the Indians.

Western people so generally clamor for the extermination of the Indians that we hail with pleasure a patent for preventing war. A Kansas journal has this plan:

Why will not the Government dismount every wild man while he is on the reservation? Without a horse a plains Indian has lost his manhood; and what courage he may have had on a fleet pony very promptly oozes out of him when he takes to the ground, wears moccasins, makes long marches, and gets his toes sore. In such plight he will not wander far from the Government rations; nor will he tantalize his guardians with the broken faith which, by his cunning and horsemanship, never fails to annoy the settler and retard immigration.

The chief trouble with this scheme is that the Indians who are most dreaded do not go on reservations, but keep their steeds out of the white man's reach.

Anecdote of Clay.

Sam Long, a well-known circus clown, tells the following story of Henry Clay: "I remember once we entered Lexington in procession, and it just happened that Henry Clay was driving in at the same time. I brought up the rear of the procession, riding a mule. As he was directly behind me, I turned my face to the ass's tail and sang out, 'Here we are, fellow citizens, Wisdom led by Folly.' The people laughed and shouted, and old Harry seemed greatly amused. The next day at the circus I made him a speech, in which I advised him to be President of the United States, and take me in his cabinet. That night he sent me a bottle of the finest wine I ever tasted with his compliments, saying 'from the poorest fool to the best clown in the United States.' Ah! sir, there was a great man for you."

BITTER-SWEET must it be to be relieved of the stigma of criminality after years of patient bearing. M. Dussud, of St. Symphorien-Sur-Coise, France, has had this alloyed pleasure. Thirty years ago he and M. Lionnet, previously reputable citizens of St. Symphorien, were convicted of murder, and with a married couple charged with prejury in their behalf, were sent to prison. There M. Lionnet died. The reputed perjurers returned from prison and died at St. Symphorien, contemned by their neighbors. Dussud, after fourteen years of imprisonment, went back to his home, and by his conduct killed the prejudice against him. Recently a pauper, dying in a hospital at Symphorien, confessed having committed the crime for which Dussud and the others suffered, and now that man, at the age of eighty years, is cleared of a charge that blasted his middle age and made his later years a period of constant struggling to redeem his reputation from dishonor.

GOVERNOR BURBRIDGE, of Ill., issued a proclamation on Thursday, designating Friday, May 30, as Decoration Day, and enjoining all loyal and patriotic citizens of that State to lay aside their usual avocations and unite in strewing flowers upon the graves of those who died in defence of their country.

THE Judicial Convention at Princeton, Ill., on Wednesday, to nominate a candidate for Supreme Judge in the place of Judge Lawrence, nominated A. McCray, of Knox county. Judge Lawrence's friends declined participating in the voting, but it is stated that he will make a canvass without a formal nomination.

IT would appear that we are not yet quite far from finding out the number of lives lost by the Richmond Switch disaster. A Providence newspaper calls attention to the fact that there are many inquiries for missing people. These might have been on the wrecked train; their bodies may have been destroyed in the fire or buried in the stream. How many persons will never be inquired after none can tell.

IN the manufacture of cast-iron tubes the practice has been introduced, with satisfactory results, of turning off one end conically, and boring out the end of the tube to which it is to be united at the same angle, the end of one tube being thus inserted into the other without the necessity of applying any cement, the junction being effected in this way very readily, and the joint being perfectly tight.

THE remarkable steps now being taken by the Western States to secure the proper national recognition of Western interests, are commanding general attention. The West is beginning to assert its rights, if not its authority. The census returns surprise even Western men with the proofs of the growth and strength of their section, and particularly with the demonstrations of what this strength will be at the next census.

SHEEP farmers are suffering heavy losses in consequence of a sudden and unlooked-for disease having broken out amongst the flocks on a number of farms in the West of Scotland. In the parish of Neilston, of a flock of about three hundred ewes upwards of forty died last week, and in many cases the lambs will perish. It has been found on examination that the liver in almost every instance is deceased, and in some cases completely destroyed.

PAYMENT of a policy of life insurance was some time ago refused by a prominent New York company, on the ground that death had resulted from suicide, which, by the terms of the policy, freed the company from liability. The case has been carried through the courts, and the Supreme Court decides that the company, notwithstanding its stipulation, must pay, as the suicide was committed during insanity, and was not, therefore, a voluntary, intelligent act.

A SERIOUS affection among horses, supposed to be the result of last year's epizooty, is reported to be prevailing at Buffalo. This disease attacks the animal's hoofs, the fetlock swells and bursts, leaving troublesome running sores. In extreme cases the hoofs drop off from the ulceration, and the horse has to be killed. This hoof affection has been running its course for over two weeks in Buffalo, and though not generally fatal, the animals require much care, being entirely unfit for work.

PRINCE EDWARD'S ISLAND has recently decided at the polls not to join the Dominion of Canada, the candidates for the Legislative Assembly in favor of the project having been rejected by large majorities. The plan has therefore been laid aside for the present. The Canadian newspapers take this result very philosophically, saying that there is no use in trying force to effect the object desired, and that absurd haste and eagerness will only delay confederation while circumstances are unpropitious.

A SINGULAR affair has occurred at Madison, Wis. A married man disappeared from public view six months ago, and his wife, when questioned, gave such contradictory replies that it came to be generally believed that she had murdered him. She was arrested on Tuesday, and officers went to search her house. When they broke open the door, they were met and savagely attacked by the man himself, who was a raving maniac. The wife, who has spent these six months alone with her maniac husband for the sake of caring for his wants, has herself gone mad since her arrest.

A PATHETIC incident occurred during the floods at Binghamton. A Mrs. Fox, residing near the cemetery gate, heard, in the morning, a peculiar moaning in the direction of the cemetery. Going there she found a little child waist-deep in water and weeping near a head-stone, which marked a lonely grave. Upon being questioned she said that she lived a long way off. She had heard that the graves were covered by water, and she feared that her mother's would be washed away. So she went to keep her poor watch and ward beside it. She was kindly cared for, and returned to her motherless home.

A DES MOINES (Iowa) dispatch says an Indian of the roving tribe of Musquitoes which infest that State, a few weeks ago murdered one of his tribe. The tribe, who were then and are now encamped on the Skunk river, near Colfax, Jasper county, put the murderer to trial and decided that he should be punished by being starved to death, which sentence was carried out to the cruel letter. The Indian was tied to a log in the woods, and several other Indians were detailed to carry the sentence into effect, which took eight days, other cruelties, known only to the red devils themselves, being added to the torture of starvation.

THE Missouri State Supreme Court has declared the act of the Legislature establishing what is known as the Forest Park unconstitutional. This park consists of a large tract of land, which, at the time the Legislature passed the act in question, lay west of the city limits of St. Louis, and which has since been added to the city as the Thirteenth ward. The act also provided for a Board of Park Commissioners, with power to purchase or condemn land for Park purposes, issue bonds, levy and collect special taxes, &c., all of which has been done, and all of which will have to be undone, leading to many complications and much vexation.

ADVICES from Marshall county, Kentucky, give an account of a terrible tragedy committed in that county a few days ago. It appears that about a year ago Joseph Daugherty married a daughter of Howell Smith. They lived happily and finally separated on Sunday last. Smith told Daugherty that he could settle the difficulty between him and his wife, when Daugherty replied by shooting the old man dead, and then fled. Subsequently he was captured and was taken back to Marshall county, when a son of the murdered Smith, being one of the capturing party, fired on Daugherty, wounding him in the hand and arm, after which he clubbed his gun and with the butt of it mashed Daugherty's head into a jelly.

The first serious blast of misfortune showed that he was neither."

IT WAS the cable man, not Death, who killed Madame Taglioni. That veteran danseuse, whose death has been announced and obituary published three times during the past few years, turns up all safe in Paris, though in delicate health, with probably a short time to live. What with the sick Pope, the cantankerous Carlists, and the declining Taglioni, the cable man makes it lively for sympathetic readers on this side of the Atlantic.—Cleveland Leader.

GEN. ANSEL HUMPHREYS, a name well known to the Masonic fraternity of the country, died at Muscatine, Ia., on the 21st inst., at the ripe age of eighty-one years. He was a native of Hartford, Conn., and removed to Iowa in 1840. In 1812 he was enrolled in the Hartford militia, in which he served for twenty-eight years, entering as private and leaving it as major-general. When about leaving the State he was offered, but declined, the position of adjutant-general. In 1851 he was appointed United States commissioner for the State of Iowa, a position held until his death. He was a prominent Mason, and a large portion of his life was devoted to the service of the craft.

A NUMBER of restless Massachusetts women are about to petition the Legislature to allow plural marriages in that staid old Commonwealth. They refer to the fact that the census shows a large excess of women over men, and in view of the further fact that a large proportion of the men are idle, vicious and incompetent to be the heads of households, they deem it manifestly unjust to restrict to one wife those husbands who are abundantly able to provide for a large family. They think when a really capable man is found, as many women ought to attach themselves to him as he can conveniently endure. This is not Woodhullism, or free-love, but simple Mormonism, without the religion, and we have the assurance that the petition is signed by educated women, some of whose family names are conspicuous in the history of New England. What are we coming to?—Albany Journal.

MISS KATE FIELD is developing into a philosopher, or something of that sort. A recent article of hers in the New York Tribune opens thus: "It is a great mistake to have a passion for anything or anybody. Passion means downright earnestness; downright earnestness means no end of feeling, no and of feeling means expression; expression frequently means fighting, and when you roll up your sleeves and begin to fight, where are you? The indifferent world looks on in wonderment that any one should be fool enough to risk a broken head for aught in heaven or on earth. If you are victorious, you are an enthusiast; and enthusiasm is a crime against society. If you are beaten, you deserve to be for startling people's nerves and making an idiot of yourself. I think that earnest people ought to be strangled in their cradles. Then there would be peace."

RUPTURE.

Every kind of Trusses for the cure of Rupture may be obtained at Dr. Keyser's establishment, No. 167 Liberty street, Pittsburgh, Pa. It is a matter of the greatest consequence that all who are ruptured should be properly fitted with a suitable Truss, and one that will keep the ruptured parts in their place. Many persons do not know when they are ruptured, and frequently years are allowed to pass by before anything is done. This is a great error, and one that is often paid for at the expense of the person's life. Rupture is too serious an injury to be treated with lightness or neglect, especially when the means for its relief and cure are so easily obtained. Children and young persons are easily cured with the improved appliances which are constantly being added to the great variety which Dr. Keyser always has on hand.

GETTYSBURG
KATALYSINE WATER.
The United States Dispensatory, the authorized record of our Materia Medica, classes this water with the most renowned Alkaline or Carbonated Springs of Europe. It far exceeds any ever known in its self-preserving properties. It does not deteriorate by bottling and keeping. It has never been claimed for any other mineral water the power to dissolve the urates or so-called chalk formations in the body or on the limbs and joints. This the Gettysburg Katalysine Water has done in hundreds of instances. Gout, Rheumatism, Neuralgia, Dyspepsia, Gravel, Diabetes, Kidney and Urinary Diseases generally have all yielded to its influence. It has restored muscular power to the paralytic, cured Abdominal Dropsy, and given healthy action to the Torpid Liver. It has cured Chronic Diarrhea, Piles, Constipation, Asthma, Catarrh, Diseases of the Skin, General Debility and Nervous Prostration from Mental and Physical Excesses. All these by the bottled water. It is a powerful antidote for Excessive Eating or Drinking. It corrects the Stomach, promotes Digestion, and relieves the head almost immediately. Pamphlets containing a history of the Spring, reports from eminent physicians and medical writers, marvelous cures and well-attested cures, and testimonials from distinguished citizens, will be furnished and sent by mail on application to

Library Gift Concert.

NINETY DAYS' POSTPONEMENT

A Full Drawing Certain.

$500,000 in Bank to Pay Gifts.

10,000 Cash Gifts Paid in Full.

$100,000 for Only $10.

Enough of the 100,000 tickets issued for the Third Grand Gift Concert, in aid of the Public Library of Kentucky, having been sold to insure a full drawing, and the wish having been universally expressed that the 10,000 cash gifts offered should be drawn in full and paid in full without any scaling down, as heretofore, the management, with the concurrence of the trustees, have determined to allow ninety days more for the sale of the remnant of tickets left on hand. The Concert and distribution advertised for April 8th is, therefore, postponed to Tuesday, July 8, 1873, on which day, and no other, they will positively and unequivocally take place in Public Library Hall, Louisville, Ky.

The money to pay all these gifts in full is now upon deposit in the Farmers' and Drovers' Bank of Louisville, and set aside for that purpose, and can only be used for that purpose, as will be seen by the following certificate of the Cashier:

This is to certify that there is in the Farmers' and Drovers' Bank to the credit of the Third Grand Gift Concert, for the benefit of the Public Library of Kentucky, five hundred thousand dollars, which has been set apart by the managers to pay the gifts in full; and will be held by the bank and paid out for this purpose, and this purpose only.

R. S. VEECH, Cashier.

The party, therefore, who holds the ticket drawing the capital gift will get $100,000 in Greenbacks, and so of the $50,000 gift, the $25,000, the $20,000, the $10,000, the $5,000, and all the other gifts, 10,000 in number, amounting to $500,000.

The remnant of unsold tickets will be furnished to those who first apply (orders accompanied by the money always having preference over agents) at the following prices: Whole tickets, $10; halves $5, and quarters, $2 50; 11 whole tickets for $100, 56 for $500, 113 for $1,000, and 575 for $5,000. The music on this grand occasion will be the best that can be procured, and the gentlemen who count and place the tags and gifts in the wheels and superintend the drawing and keep the record of the drawn numbers will be chosen from the best known and most trustworthy citizens of the State. All will be so conducted as to be a perfect guaranty against complaint from any just source.

The payment of gifts will begin on Saturday, July 12, at 9 o'clock A. M. Tickets drawing gifts must be presented at room No. 4 Public Library building, where cash checks upon the Farmers' and Drovers' Bank of Louisville, or sight drafts upon the Fourth National Bank of New York, at the option of the holder, will be given for the tickets. All gifts not called for in 6 months from the drawing will be turned over to the Public Library fund.

DAILY GAZETTE.

FINANCE AND TRADE.

OFFICE OF THE PITTSBURGH GAZETTE, THURSDAY, May 1, 1873.

In our article of yesterday, a misprint was made, and where we wrote grumblers, the printer made it gamblers, a very material difference in meaning. We make this correction because as it, the article, was printed, there could be wrong conclusions drawn from it, utterly unwarranted.

The apparently flippant remark of Gen. Grant to a New York banker not long since, to the effect "that if 1,000,000 men would put their hands in their pockets, and take out $20 apiece, and put it into Wall street, money would be easy enough," has in fact a grain of truth in the bottom which possibly did not occur to the speaker. "Every well-to-do man carries about with himself upon an average, four times as much money as before the war. Now if each of these men would deposit three-fourths of this pocket money in the bank, money would be easy; and that's what's the matter.

Alluding to the recent corruption in and failure of the Atlantic Bank at New York, through its cashier, Mr. Taintor, the New York Herald says: "There is a wide spread fear that there are other Taintors among the cashiers there, and other Ocean and Atlantic banks among the number of the New York institutions." The Atlantic Bank has been bankrupted by a theft as much as if its assets had been stolen from the counter, and to a certain extent this is due to the neglect of the directors in making themselves acquainted with the actual condition of the banks. But the average director is an easy-going man, content to believe his cashier incapable of dishonesty, especially if the latter be in good standing in society. The condition of the bank is thus stated: Reliable assets, $349,000; liabilities to depositors, $615,000; actual value of stolen securities from the bank, $228,000; capital of bank, $300,000; surplus, $76,000; making an actual deficit of $604,000. A deficit of six hundred thousand upon a capital of three hundred thousand is rather startling. Not the least surprising part of this business is that the exposure should have come through the confession of the culpable party, the cashier.

NEW YORK, May 1, 1873.

The monetary situation was marked by increased stringency and high rates of interest, ranging from 1-16 to ¼ per diem. There was a heavy calling in of loans by banks holding city funds, as the corporation is paying out nearly $3,000,000 interest and other maturing obligations. The lending capacity of the banks was also temporarily curtailed by drafts in settlement of half monthly accounts with country banks. The payment of gold coupons caused considerable sales of gold to bankers and brokers, which absorbs money for the moment. The liabilities on the Stock Exchange of Sears & Co., suspended to-day, are reported at less than $10,000. The fact that the Tenth National Bank was a creditor at the Clearing House this morning to the amount of $2,000,000 is explained to have been caused by the transfer of city funds to it from the Broadway Bank. An investigation will probably be made into the affairs of the Manufacturers and Merchants Bank, a small State institution, for the purpose of settling the rumors, perhaps unfounded, against it. The Mobile and Montgomery Railroad has defaulted on its May interest. Sterling was dull and heavy; 108¾ for sixty days; 109⅝@109¾ for sight. Gold was dull and heavy, declining from 117⅜ to 116⅞, closing at 116⅞@116⅞. Loans 3 per cent. to 1-16. Clearings $65,000,000. Customs receipts $520,000. Treasury disbursements $247,000. Governments were steady throughout the day. State bonds were neglected. Stocks, with the exception of Western Union, were very quiet, with slight fluctuations in that stock, which was actively dealt in, and evidently bears the brunt of the battle between the opposing forces on the Exchange. The transactions in it will reach 100,000 shares. The brokers of the clique offered puts at 83½ for fifteen days at ½ per cent. Otherwise prices were irregular, with a general decline in the afternoon, when money was most active and stringent. The market closed steady, though quiet.

DRY GOODS.

NEW YORK, May 1.—Commission houses were quiet to-day, but there was a fair distribution of general dry goods by jobbers. Cotton goods are fairly active for brown and bleached A shirtings and sheetings, which are steady at reduced rates. Indian Orchard and Waterford brown sheetings are reduced ¼c. Pepperell, Appleton, Laconia and Amoskeag drills are jobbing at 14½c. Colored cottons are firm at old rates. Cottonades are in good demand. Woolens continue quiet in first hands. Shawls are dull. Foreign dress goods and grenadines are in better request. Silks and ribbons are selling well at auction.

PITTSBURGH MARKETS.

OFFICE OF THE PITTSBURGH GAZETTE, THURSDAY, May 1, 1873.

Trade in general merchandize, although not active and not what it should be or usually is at this particular time, is improving and a better feeling seems to prevail in all branches of trade. The demand, as a rule, is entirely local, being restricted mainly to supplying immediate wants, while in regard to values, there are no changes deserving of special notice, excepting an advance in Sugars.

APPLES—There is a good demand for good sound fruit, and prices are well sustained, $3@3.25, per brl; common to fair, $2.50@2.75.

APPLE BUTTER—45@55c per gallon.

BEESWAX—Quoted at 33@35 cents per lb.

BUTTER—The receipts are increasing, and the market is reported offish, and prices weaker, prime to choice roll, 33@35; medium to good, 25@30; common, 12@15. Low grade butter has been very dull.

BEANS—Quoted at $2.50 per bus for medium to good, and $2.75 for prime navy.

BROOM CORN—Is quiet and unchanged; it is difficult to sell red at any price; green quotable at 4½@5, and hurl at 6@6½.

CHEESE—New cheese is coming in more freely, but with a steady demand, prices are still maintained; 11@12 for New Dairy, 14@15 for new factory; and 16½ for prime old New York Goshen.

CANNED GOODS—Are quiet and unchanged. Peaches, 3 lb. cans, $3 per dozen; 2 lb. cans, $2.50; Tomatoes $2@2¼; Winslow's Corn, $3; other brands $2.50@2.75.

CARBON OIL—There is no improvement in the demand, but prices are firm and tending upward in sympathy with the raw material; may be quoted at 16½@17 by the car load, and 1@2c additional for smaller lots.

CRANBERRIES—Prime Cultivated quoted at $13@14 per barrel; common, $9@10.

COUNTRY BACON—6@7 for Shoulders; 8@9 for Clear Sides; 10@11 for Hams. Country Lard, 7½@8½.

DRIED FRUIT—Continues exceedingly dull, and as the season is drawing to a close, holders generally are anxious to realize. Peaches, halves, 6@7c; mixed and quarters do not seem to be wanted at any price. Apples 3@5. Blackberries, 10@12. Pitted Cherries, 18@20; unpitted, 6@8.

EGGS—Quiet and unchanged, 15 to 16—most of the sales at 15.

FLOUR—The market is generally reported firmer, and spring wheat flours are a shade higher; we now quote at $7.50@8, the outside figure for choice Minnesotas, western red winter wheats, $8.50 to $9. The city mills quote their best red winter wheat brands at $9.50, which is low enough when the price of winter wheat is taken into consideration—it is claimed, we do not vouch for its truth, that a large proportion of the western flour branded and sold for winter wheat, is made out of spring and winter wheat mixed. The mills here use no spring wheat whatever, hence, their flour is what it is represented, winter wheat flour, and of course is better in point of quality than the mixed flours. Rye Flour is dull and nominal at $5.50@5.75.

GRAIN—Trade is fair, better than it has been, but the demand is entirely local and there are no quotable changes in prices. Wheat is in steady demand and scarce, hence, prices are fully sustained, $1.80@1.85 for red, and $1.90@1.95 for white—there is more inquiry apparently for the former than the latter. The receipts of Oats are increasing and the market in consequence is easier although there is no quotable change in prices: 45@46 cents for good mixed, and 47@48 for white. Shelled Corn is in light supply, and it is held with considerable tenacity, but there does not seem to be much inquiry—most of the distillers are out of the market for the present; we continue to quote at 52@53 on track, and 55 free in elevator. Rye is quiet and may be quoted at 80@85 buying, and 90@95 selling. Barley is quotable at 85@90 for Spring and 95@$1 for fall.

GROCERIES—Coffee continues firm, and it is reported more active at the seaboard. The New York Shipping List reports an advance of one quarter of a cent, and that the demand from the country, although only moderate, is on the increase. The same paper reports the stock of Brazil Coffee in United States ports at date, and vessels afloat and loading, up to April 1, at 213,667 bags. Sugars, especially refined goods, continue strong, and we advance our quotations ¼ of a cent all around. Molasses and Syrups continue dull.

COFFEE—Choice Rio, 24; Good to Prime, 22¾@23¾c. fair 21@21½c. Old Government Java, 31c; other Javas, 26@28c; Roasted Rio, 1 lb packages, 27c; loose, 26½c. Roasted Java, 33½.

MOLASSES—Choice New Orleans, 73@75c; Prime 70@72.

RICE—Choice Carolina, 9; prime, 8½; Patna, 8@; Rangoon, 7½@8.

CANDLES—Mould candles, 12c. Stearine do, 14. Star do, 21½.

SUGARS—Patent Cut Loaf, 13c; Crushed, Granulated and Powdered, 12; Standard A, 11¾; B, 11¼; Ex. C, 11c; C. Yellow, 10¾; Circle C, 10¼; Lower grades, 9@10.

FISH—Large Shore, No. 1, $25.00 per barrel; Med Shore No. 1, $23 per brl; Bay No. 1, $21; for ½ brls, quarters and kitts, 32c more. Lake Herring, halfs, $3.60; Lake herrings, quarters, $2.15; White fish, $8.

SYRUPS—White Drips, 65; other grades ranging from 60 to 40, as to quality.

SOAP—Babbit's soap, 10. Bell's Buffalo soap, $6.75. Strung & Wetzel wax, 7¼c. No. 1 Rosin 15c. Procter & Gambles wax, 7¼c.

SUNDRIES—Pennsylvania Concentrated Lye, $8. Philadelphia, $7.75. Bi-carb. Soda, kegs, 5c. Boxes, 8¼c. Hammel's Extract of Coffee, $4.50. Oswego & Duryea's Corn Starch, 11; silver and satin, 10. Buffalo Corn Starch, 10; Buffalo Gloss Starch, 9. Pearl Starch, 5½. Shot, $3 per bag. Lead, 12. Wheeling Tobies, 10.55.

HAY—Baled is in good supply and generally reported dull, although prices are without quotable change, ranging from $25 to $30 per ton, according to quality.

HOMINY—$4@4.25 per barrel.

MILL FEED—The receipts continue light, but there is no improvement in the demand, and prices remain unchanged. Bran, 85@90c; Seconds, 95@$1; Middlings, $1.10@1.20, as to quality.

MAPLE SYRUP—$1.30@1.35 for gallon jugs. Maple Sugar, 15@16.

POULTRY—Live chickens in light supply and selling readily at 80@90c per pair.

PROVISIONS—Extra Sugar Cured Hams, 14½c, canvassed do., 15c; Extra Sugar Cured Shoulders, plain, 10, canvassed, 10½c; Sugar Cured Breakfast Bacon, plain, 12½c, canvassed, 13c; Extra Sugar Cured Dried Beef, plain, 18½c, canvassed, 19c; Sugar Cured Beef tongues, $7.50 per dozen. Bacon Shoulders, 9c; Rib Sides, 10; Short Rib Sides, 10½; Clear Sides, 11c; Mess Pork, $18.50; Leaf Lard: in trcs, 10½c; half bbls, 11¼c; bkts. 11½c; refined for summer use in trcs, 10½c, ½ brls, 11¼; bkts, 11¾; refined in 3 lb caddies, 12¼; do in 5 lb 12⅛c; do in 3 lb pails 13¼, do in 5 lb pails, 13¼c; from Sausage 10c.

POTATOES—The market is well supplied, although the receipts are falling off again, and prices are maintained; sales in a jobbing way at 75@80c per bushel for mixed, and 85@90 for Peach Blows.

RAGS—Quoted at 3¼@3½c.

SEEDS—There is a continued fair demand for both Clover and Timothy Seeds notwithstanding the season is late, and with a light supply prices are well maintained, ranging from $5.75@6 for the former, and $3.75@4 for the latter. Flax Seed, $2@2.05.

TALLOW—8@8½c.

WHISKY—Highwines may be quoted at 91@92 cts. per gallon.

PITTSBURGH LIVE STOCK MARKET.

CENTRAL STOCK YARDS, EAST LIBERTY, THURSDAY, May 1, 1873.

With continued liberal receipts and very unfavorable reports, both from Buffalo and New York, trade continues sluggish and prices are weak with a drooping tendency. Our New York dispatch of Wednesday reported that market unsettled and decidedly weak at a decline of ½ of a cent per lb., dressed weight, or about six dollars per head; also that not a few droves were sold at less than first cost in Chicago. From Buffalo the advices were of a similar import. The receipts at Chicago yesterday, were light, as compared with Monday and Tuesday, 2,786 head, making over 15,000 head for the three days. It will be observed, therefore, that the situation is anything but favorable for sellers, and buyers, as might be expected, continue very bearish, and as noted in our last report, there is little or no inquiry for New York, and but for the Philadelphia and country buyers, there would be scarcely any trade at all. We do not look for any change for the better this week, indeed, the indications at present all point in the contrary direction, and sellers generally will lose money—some of them, a good deal of it. It is difficult to give quotations. The very best shipping steers averaging 1,500, fat and smooth cannot be quoted above 7c. and buyers, and prime 1,300@1,400 averages 6½@6¾. Good stock steers 900 to 1,000 lbs, 5@5½. Bulls 3½@4½. Fat 1,100@1,200 Cherokee and Texas, 5½@5¾.

SHEEP.

The arrivals continue light, but the market is slow under the influence of the unfavorable reports from New York, and prices are weak though not quotably lower. Clipped, 95@100 lbs, fat and smooth, 5½@6c—the latter is considered an outside price. Wooled sheep, same weights, 6½@7¼. The former, weights and quality being equal, sell more readily than the latter, and it would be well enough for growers to bear this in mind.

HOGS.

The market continues fairly active, and notwithstanding the receipts are up to if not above the average, prices are fully sustained, and some dealers seem to be impressed with the belief that they will go still higher.

Hedges Huff & Co. quote as follows: Extra assorted, 6.35; prime, 6.30; good mixed, 6; fair to good Yorkers, 5.65@5.75.

PETROLEUM MARKET.

OFFICE OF THE PITTSBURGH GAZETTE, THURSDAY, May 1, 1873.

The Crude market was reported weaker to-day, and as compared with yesterday, prices were lower, $2.65@2.75 per brl, the former at the Fairview line, and the latter at the Mutual and Union. It is said that the refiners generally, not only of Pittsburgh, but of Cleveland, Philadelphia and New York, have been buying very sparingly within the past few days, and some dealers go so far as to affirm their belief that many of the sales made at the advance, were "whitewashed," and reported for the purpose of "bulling" the market. As noted in our last report, however, producers allege that the advance was entirely legitimate; having been caused by the falling off in the production, and it is generally conceded, we understand, that the yield has fell off somewhat of late, particularly in the Parker district, but whether sufficiently to cause the advance above refered to, we are not prepared to state.

Refined continues very quiet, and prices are nominally unchanged. The New York Shipping List of Wednesday says there has been an advance or one cent per gallon in that market; also, that refiners were offering sparingly, and that the demand was being met by speculators, who were anxious to realize on the advance.

Oil barrels steady, with a fair demand, and prices are fully sustained. Countries, $1.95, city make, 9 lb. hoops, $2.05; 10 lb. hoops $2.10.

Wool Markets.

NEW YORK, April 30.—The Shipping List says: There is no change to note in the market. The demand continues good but prices do not improve. PHILADELPHIA, April 30.—Pig Iron is dull, but prices are without material change. Sales of No. 1 foundry at $50, and No. 2 at $47@48. Bar is quiet at 4 5-10c per lb, and Nails firm at $5.25 per keg.

NEW YORK, April 30.—The market for Scotch Pig is inactive; occasionally, lots from dock are disposed of at prices below our quotations, and the business from store is only to meet the light demand prevailing for some time past; we have only to note sales of 250 tons Glengarnock at $49@50 from dock, in Jersey City, and 50 do. from yard, $52. American Pig is quiet and firm; we quote No. 1 $50, No. 2 $47@48, and Gray Forge $40@42; we heard of a rumor of 100 tons No 1 Crane having been sold at $50, but we could not confirm it. Rails, both old and new, are very quiet and without business. Scrap is dull and nominal in absence of business. Refined Bar from store is dull, and prices are a little softer.

LIVE STOCK.

NEW YORK, May 1.—Beeves: receipts 98 cars, or 1,563 head, making 3,730 since Monday, against 3,350 head last week. After a weaker market for beeves on Monday, at a decline of ¼c, the beef market became decidedly depressed, and at the opening of the cattle market yesterday butchers claimed and obtained concessions equal to ½@¾c, which failed to secure an active trade, and the day's market closed dull and heavy, with a number of car loads not sold. To-day the feeling was no better, but salesmen appeared to be more reconciled to low figures, and most of the droves were closed out. The average decline since Monday is more than $6 per head compared with one week ago. The quotations are $1 per 100 lbs net lower. The quality of the offerings was a large percentage better, and the extreme range of the reported sales shows a decline of only about ½c, but there was a difference in quality. The larger proportion sold at inside figures and a concession in most cases of one pound dressed weight to the gross cwt make the total reduction nearly, if not quite, one cent per lb. 20 car loads Texas and Cherokee cattle, all fat, sold at 10½@11¼c; 19 cars Illinois steers, strong 6¾ cwt, at 11¼@12½c; 8 cars do, 6¾ cwt, at 11½c; 12 cars do, 6½ cwt, at 11@11¾c; 16 cars do, 7 cwt, at 11½@12c; 4 cars Ohio steers, 7½ cwt, at 12c; 3 cars Ohio steers, 6¾ cwt, at 11¾c, and 14 cars fat Missouri cattle, 6½@7¾ cwt, at 11½@12½c; dressed beef has a very slow sale at 8½@10½c, a few extra sides selling at 11c. Hog dressed veal very plenty at 5@9c, and live calves dull at 5@8c. Sheep: receipts to-day 10 cars or 1,970 head, making 6,370 since Monday, against 5,290 for same time last week; market decidedly weak; 5@6c for fair to prime clipped sheep, with a few extra, 122 lbs average, 6½c, and one car load of good unshorn, 96 lbs average, 6¾c; 10 car loads Texas sheep, 75 lbs, received Tuesday last, remain unsold; spring lambs sell fairly; $7@8.50 or 15 18c per pound; mutton very dull; 6@8c. Hogs: receipts to-day 5,900, making a total of 30,200 since Monday, against 18,600 same time last week; market weaker and the few cars of live hogs on sale were held over; city dressed hogs selling more freely but at lower prices; closing at 7¾@8c.

BUFFALO, May 1.—Cattle: receipts to-day, including 74 cars to arrive, 1,292; total for week 8,908. Market dull and but few eastern buyers in attendance. Hogs: receipts to-day, including reported arrivals, 8,200; market flat; buyers hauling off; not sufficient sales to make quotable market; prices nominally $5.25@5.50.

CHICAGO, May 1.—Cattle: receipts to-day 2,150; weather rainy; market overstocked and extremely dull; few lots of fair to good steers sold at $5.25@5.10; good 12 cwt Texans $4.80; fair to good butcher cows $3.75@4.10; shipments yesterday 3,166. Hogs: receipts to-day 12,642; market rules quiet, with sales at $5@5.45 for fair to good, and closed dull, with buyers holding off for a decline; shipments 8,819. RIVER NEWS.

The river was falling slowly yesterday with 7 feet 8 inches in the channel. There was considerable rain in the afternoon, with every indication in the evening of its continuance, and the prospects are favorable for more water.

There were no arrivals excepting the regular daily packets. The Savanna departed for St. Louis with a good freight both on boat and barges.

Mr. Thos. J. Darragh, a well known steamboat clerk, recently on the Belle Vernon, leaves for San Francisco, California, on a tour of observation.

An attachment has been issued against the steamer Charley McDonald on claims of unpaid wages due the crew.

The Juniata from Cincinnati, Exchange from Nashville, and Messenger, from St. Louis, are among the first boats due.

—The reporter of the New Orleans Picayune last Saturday interviewed Capt. Leathers, of the Natchez, in regard to the report of Captain Cannon offering to bet Leathers $20,000 on the Lee against the Natchez. The Picayune says: "Capt. Leathers authorizes us to state that a sealed letter was received on the Natchez, through the hands of Mr. Ed. Carroll, of Vicksburg, who stated that the letter had been written by Mr. Mossop, clerk of the R. E. Lee, but that there was no signature attached. Capt. Leathers also requested it to be said that the Natchez is ready at any moment to make the run from this port, either to Cairo or St. Louis, against any steamer on the Mississippi river, for the sum of $15,000 a side."

—The Kate P. Kountz, six days out, passed Leavenworth on Saturday for the Upper Missouri. She had to get a new crew there, as she was "jumped" at Kansas City. The Mollie Moore passed same day, eight days out from St. Louis. The Mollie Moore is quite a large boat for the Upper Missouri trade, being fifty feet wide and 240 feet long, but the captain is confident he can make good time to Benton.

—The Peninah added 200 tons of freight at Sioux City and cleared Saturday for Benton. The Far West arrived at Ft. Randall Thursday afternoon; the Key West reached Fort Sully Friday and the Western was at Fort Randall 6 o'clock Friday evening. The Esperanza added 5 tons freight and 7 passengers at Omaha and left Saturday for Benton.

—The St. Louis Democrat of Wednesday says: The bids that are being examined in New York for the transportation of Indian goods on the Upper Missouri, are mainly from St. Louis, Pittsburgh and Chicago. The amount of freight in question is reported at 25,000,000 pounds or 12,500 tons, and is the largest contract ever considered for transportation on the Missouri.

—Mr. John Teller, for the past quarter of a century passenger agent at the New Orleans landing, died in that City Saturday morning last. He died of chronic pneumonia. The steamers at the landing displayed their colors at half-mast, as a token of respect to the deceased.

—New Orleans Times, Sunday: "Business on the levee was more animated than we have noticed for several days past. There was a large number of departures, and on the majority of them we noticed ample freight and passenger lists."

—Capt. Billy Bowmen, formerly commander and clerk of the West Wind, and Joe Johnson, engineer, were in Evansville on Sunday last, it is said, for the purpose of negotiating with certain parties there for the building of a packet for the red river trade.

—The negroes who murdered Thos Doyle, mate of the Grand Tower, have been arrested, and are now confined in Cairo. Mr. Doyle had been carrying a policy of $5,000 on his life, but permitted it to expire some time since, and his family are left unprovided for.

—Mr. L. A. Ruffner, says the Evansville Courier of yesterday, is going to raise the sunken steamer Commercial as soon as possible, and has made partial engagements to that effect.

—Capt. Wise says the J. D. Parker made the round trip to Memphis and back to Cincinnati in eleven days, making 148 landings, and handling 1200 tons of freight. He says he might as well blow about fast time as other fast boats.

—The steamer Prescott, which has heretofore run between Keokuk and Fort Madison, has been sold by Messrs. Gillespie & Gerboth, to E. D. Rand & Co., of Burlington, for $6,000.

—Cotton rates from Memphis to Cincinnati range from 65c to $1 per bale.

—Captain Ad. Storm has raffled himself into the possession of a $500 trotter at Memphis.

NO CHARGE UNTIL CURED.

Syphilis, Stricture, Orchitis, Hernia and all Urinary diseases are cured in the shortest possible time that will insure permanent relief. Medicines supplied at the Institute. A medical pamphlet relating to private diseases sent in sealed envelope for two stamps. All communications confidential.

This Institute was established for the express purpose of supplying the afflicted with scientific and reliable treatment, and is not to be classed with the numerous quacks and impostors that infest all large cities. The proprietors have made the treatment of Private diseases the study of their lives, and can refer to thousands all over the country that have been benefitted and cured by their treatment. No matter how difficult or long standing your case may be, if curable, after a personal examination they will frankly tell you; remember, they have cured many cases given up by other physicians.

Patients treated by mail or express, but where possible, it is best to visit the city for personal consultation, or address GIRARD MEDICAL INSTITUTE, No. 172 Second avenue, Pittsburgh, Pa. Office hours 9 A. M. to 7 P. M. Sundays by appointment.

Survey Committee Meeting.

The Survey Committee of Pittsburgh Councils met yesterday afternoon in Clerk Morrow's office. The resignation of Mr. Murray, as a member of the committee, was not accepted. Several petitions were acted upon. A sub-committee was appointed to locate and plan streets in the Twenty-second ward. The pay-roll for the month of April, amounting to $1,521.67, was approved.

Accident at a Mill.

A man named Bivens, met with a very serious accident at Hartupee's mill, corner First and Ferry streets yesterday afternoon. It appears he was hoisting a huge casting weighing some two tons on a crane, when the mass fell on him, crushing one of his legs in a most terrible manner. He was taken to his home at Mount Washington, where Dr. McCormick attended him.

A Rapid Disappearance.

Mr. F. A. Hill, of San Francisco, who is stopping at the Monongahela House, last evening while conversing with a friend in the reading room of that hostelrie, laid his wallet down containing some one hundred and fifty dollars and valuable papers upon the table, in order to take out a memorandum for reference. He laid it alongside of him and read a letter, and when he again looked for his pocketbook it was gone. He thinks it was a newsboy who took it, that was selling papers in the room at the time. Mr. Hill does not want the money, but he would be obliged for the memorandums which the book contained, as they are of no use to any one but himself, and will be gratefully received if they are returned.

The Real Estate Savings Bank.

There will be found among to-day's advertisements the official sworn exhibit of the assets and liabilities of the above named Institution. We call special attention to it—an example of judicious and careful management on the part of its officers crowned by signal success. This Savings bank yet in its infancy, has grown from its day of small things up to a conspicuous place among our banks for saving, its deposits reaching three-fourths of a million, and its surplus to nearly sixty thousand dollars. It is noteworthy that this bank holds first liens on Real Estate. National bonds, and cash, largely in excess of all deposits, thus affording absolute security to all depositors. The progress and present strength of this bank are fairly ascribable to the enlightened and diligent management of its officers and to the eminent business experience and sagacity of its Board of Trustees, which comprises several of our most prominent and wealthy manufacturers. The present condition and future prospects of the "Real Estate" are all that its officers, trustees or depositors could desire.

Daylight Thieves at Work in the Suburbs.

Mr. David Broadfoot's residence at Hammersville, West Deer township, was entered by a thief or thieves, on Wednesday afternoon, and several hundred dollars' worth of property carried off. He has made an information before the Allegheny Mayor, who has issued a warrant for a party who is described below. The property carried off consists of two $200 checks, one $150 check, and one $50 check, all on the Second National Bank of Allegheny city and payable to the order of Mr. Broadfoot; also a number of promisory notes, amounting in value to $150, about fifteen dollars' worth of silver coin, and a number of articles of wearing apparel, consisting of two pairs of pantaloons, two coats and a vest, amounting in value to about $25. The party who is supposed to have committed the act is described as follows: He was a person about five feet seven inches in height, with very black hair, and slightly gray about the temples, black moustache, dark complexioned, and described as a "keen looking little fellow," and wanting part of the fore finger of his left hand.

The Dispensary Department of the Homoepathic Hospital.

Owing to the inclement weather during the past month many of the poor of our city who are unable to pay for the services of a physician, have availed themselves of the opportunity of procuring medical attention and medicines from this noted charitable institution. During the month of April there were five hundred and seven prescriptions issued and filled by this department of the Hospital.

One hundred and thirty-three visits were made gratuitously by the members of the attending staff, making the large total of prescriptions for April of six hundred and forty.

The Dispensary is open in the morning from 11 to 12 o'clock, and also in the afternoon from 2 to 3 o'clock.

At a meeting of the Executive Committee of the Hospital and Dispensary the following were re-appointed to attend the Dispensary. Morning service—W. F. Edmundson, M. D., C. F. Bingaman, M. D., J. H. Buffum, M. D. Afternoon service—C. P. Seip, M. D., R. E. Carrothers, M. D., I. B. Chantler, M. D.

PENNSYLVANIA REFORM SCHOOL.

The Proposed New Buildings—Contracts Awarded Yesterday.

Yesterday was the day fixed by the Building Committee of the Pennsylvania Reform School for opening the bids for laying the stone in the basement stories of the two main buildings, and the four family buildings about to be erected on the Morganza farm. The excavation grading and masonry and all material (except the stone, which is supplied under a separate contract) was awarded to Messrs. J. P. and R. H. Knox, of Allegheny. The wood work, including material work and setting in place all the window and door frames for the basements or cellars, was awarded to Mr. Daniel C. Vote, also of Allegheny. There were in all eighteen bids, those deemed the lowest and best were selected. The difference between the maximum and minimum bids was about $7,000. The successful men are said to be excellent mechanics and reliable contractors.

A FALLEN STONE.

Accident in the City Limits to the Fast Line on the Pennsylvania Railroad Yesterday Morning.

The Fast Express, due from the east at 1:35 yesterday morning, met with quite an accident at Denny's curve, in this city. An immense rock had rolled on the track from a deep cut at that point, and caused an obstruction. The train, which consisted of the engine, postal, baggage and express cars and seven passenger coaches, was turning the sharp curve at the usual rate of speed, when the obstruction was encountered. The engine jumped the track, and after running along the cross ties for a short distance, plowed into the hillside, causing the cowcatcher to be imbedded in the bank. The engineer, Thos. Ridley, and the fireman stayed by their engine, and were not injured. The postal car, which was next the engine, was overturned, slightly injuring Col. Elder. The balance of the train stayed on the track, and no one was injured.

A wrecking party was immediately sent from the Union Depot, and the passengers were transferred by a special train. All the debris was cleared up by yesterday morning, and trains left as usual, causing very little delay to travel.

THE POLICE COMMITTEE.

New Lockups on the South Side—Their Location Decided upon—A Police Telegraph Recommended—Changes in the South Side Market House.

Last evening the Police Committee of City Councils held a regular meeting. Chairman C. P. Duff presiding.

The report of the sub-committee on South Side lockups was presented. The committee consisting of Messrs. Atterbury, Laughlin and McKee, set forth that they had secured a site for a lockup in Temperanceville, being a lot forty feet front by one hundred feet deep, the price of which was $3,200. They had also had an offer of the property on Third street, near Carson in Birmingham, now containing the co-operative store building, for $5,500. The lot was twenty-four feet front by one hundred and twenty feet deep, and the building thereon, with but a little change, could be transformed into a commodious lock-up.

The report of the Sub-Committee was received, discussed, and finally adopted.

The Chairman reported that complaints had been made by the Fire Commission that the use of the fire alarm telegraph wires for police purposes interfered with the object for which the alarm had been put up,—as the telegraph when used by the police could not be used for the fire alarm, and in one instance there had been some trouble about it, while difficulty was likely to arise at any time. This matter was discussed and a sub-committee consisting of Messrs. Duff, Jeremy and Trautman appointed to ascertain the cost of putting up a single line of wire on the fire alarm telegraph poles to be used exclusively for police purposes.

A resolution was also passed, requesting the Market Committee to have the coffee stand in the Birmingham Market House vacated, and the room transferred into an apartment for the hearing of police cases. It was stated that by a slight change, a communication could be made between this room and the lock-up in the building, and for this reason, it was desirable as a police headquarters. The Committee then approved the pay roll and adjourned.

THE MURDER IN THE WOODS.

Theories of the Crime—Certain Statements Refuted—The Coroner Censured by the Public—The Hearing this Morning.

The tragedy of Monday does not seem to lose in interest. Yesterday it was still discussed on the streets, and many theories advanced. An interview with Chief of Police Irwin did not throw much light on the subject. He states he has been trying hard to ferret out the guilty parties, but so far, he is not very sanguine that the guilty ones are in custody. Yesterday he received a dispatch from Tyrone, on the Pennsylvania Railroad, stating that two men had been arrested there who answered the description of the parties seen in the vicinity of Saltsburg on the day of the murder, but no answer was returned.

The sensational rumors which implicated Mrs. Cline in the tragedy, and which, through the agency of suspicious gossips, gained currency, have added fresh grief to an already deeply bereaved family, and all without any apparent basis of fact. Like all other matters, however, pertaining to the sad affair, these rumors, which imparted the guilt to the child's foster mother, received the attention of the detectives, and yesterday officers Scott and Wilmot visited Saltsburgh to make a thorough investigation of the allegations set forth. The theory was that Mrs. Cline might have been angry at the child's delay, and in a moment of anger inflicted a fatal blow and afterward finished her work; and further that some motive might have been furnished for her action through a jealousy of the affection which was bestowed upon Lizzie, by the head of the household, in preference to his own children. But a full investigation developed the fact, first that Mrs. Cline could not (even if she had the heart to do so) have committed the murder, from the time she was seen going in quest of Lizzie and the time when she came back calling for help. The whole time that she was out of sight was just four minutes and such a dreadful affair could not have transpired in that brief period. Then as to the second theory the unanimous expression of the neighbors was that the child Lizzie was always and in all respects treated with the utmost kindness and not a shadow of difference was exhibited between the treatment she received and that accorded to the Cline children. It is easy enough to start a cruel rumor, but quite a different matter to substantiate it. The affair is certainly terrible enough to the afflicted friends of the murdered child, without their agony being intensified with such reports.

Later developments in reference to the matter tend to deepen the mystery. The fact that the girl was not violated, her clothing but little torn, and no marks of violence exhibited upon her body further than the wounds which produced death, seemed to give a slight basis for a theory that the crime was not committed by men, and upon this circumstance the rumors above noted ever started, but there will have to be something more substantial than this to change the scent.

It was supposed that witnesses could be procured who could prove that the men now in jail were seen talking to the girl on the path leading to the woods, and also seen to jump the fence, but these men now refuse to make this statement under oath, though they did make them to reporters and others. This morning at ten o'clock Pohle and Hyndeman will come up for a hearing before Mayor Blackmore, when it is expected that material facts bearing upon this mysterious case will be brought out.

Coroner West is much blamed for his apparent apathy, and very little interest he has taken the case. It has been stated on the streets that he was in a great hurry to go through the case, and get done with the inquest, instead of taking the pains to go to the bottom of the story, and endeavor to bring the guilty parties to justice, if they could be found. Instead of this, however, he did not more than half examine the witnesses, and only a few of them, it taking him but a few hours to do up the entire inquest. They assert and justly too, that the Coroner is for the purpose of aiding in ferreting out mysteries of this nature and it was his duty to develop everything that was possible to help the officers in obtaining a clue as to who the guilty parties are. The entire tragedy is still enveloped in a mystery, but the hearing this morning, may raise the cloud now surrounding it.

PIKE STREET OPENING.

The Citizens Opposed to the Viewers' Report—A Protest to be Presented to Councils.

At the last meeting of City Councils, an ordinance was passed by the Common Branch for the opening of Pike street. It seems, however, that the property holders in the locality, while not adverse to the opening of the street, are decidedly opposed to the report of the viewers, and to-day they will make known their wishes in a petition, which has been prepared, has received many signatures of the most prominent property holders, and as given below, fully explains itself:

To the Honorable, the Select Councils of the City of Pittsburgh:

Your petitioners, residents of the Ninth and Tenth wards of said city, respectfully represent,

That they are residents and property owners in Pike street in said city, the said street having been opened by the Councils, and damages and benefits assessed by the board of viewers in pursuance of the laws now in force—damages to a very large amount having been assessed on all the property fronting on said street west of Sixteenth street. The report of the board of viewers having been returned to Councils, the Common Councils confirmed the same on Monday, April 28, 1872, and the same now awaits the action of your Honorable body.

Your petitioners respectly but firmly protest against the confirmation of said report for the following reasons:

First, The property west of Sixteenth street belonging to your petitioners is in no way benefited by the proposed opening. The Allegheny Valley Railroad Company now occupies the roadbed of said street, to the exclusion of other travel and taxing the property along said street west of Sixteenth street, for the opening of the street above that point, would in no way benefit your petitioners.

Second, the occupation of said street, west of Sixteenth street by the railroad company's tracks, renders the street practically useless as a highway. Should your body confirm the report you would compel the property owners along the line of the street west of Sixteenth street to pay for the opening of a street far east of them, to the sole benefit of the property fronting along the street as opened. Thus giving them a good highway. This would be incorrect in principle and unjust to your petitioners.

Your petitioners therefore would respectfully request your honorable body to inquire into the facts, and that you send the report back to the Board of Viewers for further action, and they will ever pray, &c.

HEAVY DAMAGES CLAIMED.

The Connellsville Railroad Company in Court—Suit of Contractors—The Case Submitted to Arbitrators.

A case of some interest is now being tried before a Board of Arbitration which holds its session in the office of Hampton & Dalzell. The parties engaged are Messrs. Jones, Schenley & Co. against the Connellsville Railroad Company. The former are contractors, hailing from Canada, and they allege that they offered bids on the work, when proposals were asked for the extension of the Connellsville Railroad from Connellsville to Cumberland. Their bid was accepted, and thirteen sections were awarded them. Having received the contract, as they allege, they hired one thousand men in Canada, and made every preparation to push the work forward vigorously, but they were delayed by the failure of the company to furnish plans, and finally had the contract taken from them. They figure up their damages at over $100,000, and brought suit in the District Court to recover, but afterward the matter was referred by mutual consent to a court of arbitration consisting of Messrs. S. H. Geyer, C. W. Robb, and W. G. Hawkins, Jr., all lawyers. The decision of this court is to be final. The company is represented by Mr. Geo. Shiras, Jr., and the contractors by Messrs. Marshall and Hampton, of this city, and Mr. Lyons, of Canada.

Its literary character, always good, is well sustained, its illustrations have never before equalled the present number. We have not space to praise this home enterprise as it deserves. Let every family subscribe for and enjoy it. To all such it will commend itself, without other endorsement.

····Yesterday morning, in the United States Circuit Court, sitting in Philadelphia, the case of the Pennsylvania Salt Manufacturing Company vs. the Centennial Lye Company came up for argument. This is an application for an injunction to restrain the defendants from putting up concentrated lye in air-tight packages, which is alleged to be an infringement of the plaintiff's patent. We join our congratulations with other friends and wish them an abundance of felicity.

····The editor of one of our country exchanges published something which gave offense to a subscriber, who immediately stopped his paper. The ex subscriber could not realize how the paper still came out without his patronage until the editor explained as follows how he survived the financial shock: "Was pretty close work for awhile, we confess, but by omitting to put sugar in our tea, and buying a cheaper grade of paper collars and reversing them for the second and third time, we managed to rub along until a new subscriber came along and took the place of our respected disgruntled friend, and then Richard was himself again. Nothing but rigid economy will carry one safely over such a calamity as the loss of a subscriber."

····Yesterday morning a petition was presented in the Court of Common Pleas, by Mrs. Annie Link, for a divorce from her husband, George Link, on the ground of habitual drunkenness, indignities to her person, and abuse of her child. The parties were married in 1868, since which time it is alleged they have lived in constant unhappiness. It is alleged that on Sundays the husband is in the habit of taking persons to the house, and there drinking and carousing, and offering insults to the wife and family. He, on one occasion, attacked the libellant's son, bruising him badly, and making it unsafe for him to remain in the house. He also frequently assaulted the libellant, thereby making it hazardous for her to remain at home. The Court awarded a subpœna returnable on the first Monday in June.

AMUSEMENTS.

OPERA HOUSE.—The farewell benefit of Mrs. Chanfrau is announced for this evening when she will appear in Mr. Tayleures new drama of "Christie Johnson." The piece is immensely popular elsewhere; is full of exciting scenes, and situations, and above all possesses here, a popular repute, which will surely tell on the attendance to-night. Mrs. Chanfrau richly deserves the compliment of a crowded house. She is remarkably pleasing in appearance, and in style, and in the interpretation of the emotions, especially of those which spring from the domestic affections, and from womanly pride she takes rank amongst the best artistes of the times. Her engagement closes to-morrow night. For the matinee to-morrow "Aurora Floyd" will be presented for the last time.

LIBRARY HALL.—Last evening Miss Laura Keene and her dramatic company appeared in "Masks and Faces," Miss Keene playing the part of "Peg Woffington." The house was well rendered. This evening she appears for her benefit in a choice comedy bill.

CITY HALL.—The fair for the home for working women is continuing to be well patronized. Visit it if you want to have a pleasant time. Good dinner can be had there during the day.

AIMS' AMERICAN THEATRE.—Continuous prosperity rules this place, and good programmes are given every night.

DISTRICT COURT.—JUDGES HAMPTON AND KIRKPATRICK.

The case of Thomas A. Carson et ux, vs. Andrew McCloy et ux, was suddenly brought to a close by an amicable settlement between the parties.

The jury in the case of Joshua Kail vs. John Ango returned a verdict for plaintiff, for the sum of one hundred and fifty dollars. This was an action of covenant against the defendant as warrantor of a deed to plaintiff.

In the case of Simon Jacobs vs. the Adams Express Company, plaintiff took a non suit.

In the case of Frederick Wendt vs. Philip Demmel and William Ihmsen, the plaintiff, as alleged, was the owner of a certain float or landing for unloading coal, of the value of three hundred dollars, and lying in the Monongahela rivar at a wharf owned by Wm. Ihmsen, one of the defendants. Mr. Ihmsen, for an alleged claim of wharfage or rent, issued a landlord's warrant directed to Demmel, as his bailiff and as constable, to take into his keeping the wharfboat, which he afterwards sold for forty dollars, a sum greatly below its true value. The plaintiff alleged that through the carelessness and negligence of defendants the boat was greatly damaged while in their possession. The jury returned a verdict for plaintiff for $249.25.

The case of Nathanial Ballentine vs. William Kearns, William Sheridan, James Richardson, Henry Brown and James Hood, was called up and is likely to last for several days. This is a suit for slander. The case was fully reported at the time. The plaintiff was a member of the United Presbyterian Church of Temperanceville, and was officially charged with the collection for the poor in the congregation, when it was charged against him by the defendants, members of the congregation, that he had appropriated the sum of three dollars out of the poor fund of the church. The plaintiff claims ten thousand dollars damages.

CHRISTIAN READING ROOMS.

Suggestions Concerning Small Reading Rooms for Young Men—Work Already Commenced.

To the Editors of the Pittsburgh Gazette:

There is a great want in our midst, which many are anxious to see supplied. It will take a less amount of money and labor to do so than many suppose. It is universally known that our young men, by thousands, spend their evenings in saloons and other places, where they ruin themselves for time and eternity. When these young men were boys, they loved to spend their evenings on the streets rather than in their homes, which were not made attractive to them. Now, there is no provision made for them at home and they must have some place to resort. If they choose the street corners instead of worse places, they receive the corrupt education of loafers. There are no shelters in their reach but liquor saloons, and the ones that go there must spend money for drink to be allowed to stay. They confess that after the first drink or two, they are reckless as to the amount they take, and in this way they become drunkards. What kind of citizens do they make? The people spend a great amount of money to control them &c., but offer them no better place of training. If these young men can be made to think, their reformation is half accomplished. What is more calculated to cause them to think than a certain kind of live, stirring religious papers and magazines, on which is the blessing of God? If small reading rooms were established in many parts of our cities, and taken charge of in the evenings by our Christian people, and well supplied with such reading matter, no doubt there would be many cases of true reformation, (which is salvation). Papers of real use, such as journals for mechanics, and some of the dailies could be added. All novels to be excluded and avoided, even as the dens they lead to.

This is not all talk, for the work has already a commencement, though a small one, yet enough to show its practicability. A young Christian of Allegheny City saw the need, and felt impressed that it was his duty to open a room on the above plan. Believing it to be God's work, and that He would support it, he did not ask any subscriptions. While looking for a room to rent, the City Missionary, Rev. J. C. High, offered a large front room in the new Mission Church, on Green street, Third ward, Allegheny. It was started on the 15th inst., and is open every evening except Sunday. Although among a class who do not care much for reading, yet it meets with encouragement.

It does not cost much to support such rooms, and nine or ten places, under one management, can be carried on for the same amount of money as half a dozen under separate managements.

The publishing of this may give rise to a Reading Room Society, which would be a power for good, among our boys, at the very least.

THE following is an exact copy of the will of a ship's captain, recently proved in England, with the omission of the names and dates:

"As to all my worldly goods I have in store,
I leave to my dear wife and hers for evermore,
I freely give; I no limit fix;
This is my will, and she the executrix.

"On board the ——, lat. 38 deg. 21 m. N.; long. 32 deg. 29 min. W."

SENATOR SUMNER continues to improve slowly, and his prescribing physician, Dr. Brown Sequard, who was recently in Washington, has strong hopes of his entire recovery. The Senator is still prohibited from work of a mental character, but is allowed to read to some extent. He is much better now than he was in January last, when hypodermic injections of morphia were a nightly necessity.

OAKDALE.

Plowing Contest Under the Auspices of the Fayette Farmers' Club.

Correspondence of the Pittsburgh Gazette:

OAKDALE, ALLEGHENY COUNTY, PA., April 15, 1871.

Although Thursday, April 10th, was such an unpleasant day, we were not, like many of our friends, discouraged by an April shower, but ventured forth with a band of enterprising farmers, accompanied by some half dozen of the most pleasant and agreeable gents imaginable, to the place at which the plowing contest under the auspices of the Fayette Farmers' Club was to be witnessed. Before 10 A. M. seven entries were made, four by men and three by boys, who desired to compete for the premiums, which amounted in all to forty dollars. The Committee of Arrangements had made provision for many more entries, and doubtless their expectations would have been fulfilled had it not been that a great number of persons were deterred from coming by the inclemency of the weather.

Another, and we thought the best, reason why more entries were not made, was because many good plowmen were afraid they could not excel the Fayette farmers, who threw the dirt to the hill in a scientific way, they having had the advantage of the training of the "Fayette Farmers' Club."

But a small number of plows were presented for trial. Among them the "Scotch Plow," it having been made in Glasgow, and imported by Mr. Dougherty, a member of the club, appeared to arouse the curiosities of those present more than any other plow. It was really an Oriental curiosity, and we can think of nothing to which to compare it, not being like any plow we had ever seen. Its construction was very peculiar, its handles being very long, it being in entire length thirteen feet. Many, too, evinced an interest in the "Heckendorn Plow," and from appearances, it was the favorite plow of a larger majority of the plow-men present. Soon after ten "the ball was opened," and no sooner did it open than those polite guests, the politicians, who then numbered as many as the plowers, became intensely interested, and complimented the men and their work very highly. About 1 P. M. the plowing was completed. The judges were then escorted to the ground, and after a careful examination of the work they gave the first award as best plowman to Mr. John Matthews; 2d, Alex. Campbell; 3d, George Hadden; 4th, Samuel Wallace. As best plowboy Robert McMurray received 1st premium, Robert Wallace 2d, and Arthur Wallace 3d. The plowing was all most excellent and deserving of praise. Mr. Hadden, especially, deserved credit, he using a team that was untrained and strange to him. It is but due to the boys to say that their work was considered by many as good, and by some even better, than that of the men.

A heavy rain prevented the Committee on "Plow Test" from deciding on the respective merits of the different plows. The crowd seemed to think that while the Scotch plow, when well handled, made handsome work, the Heckendorn was better adapted to the general wants of the plowmen of this vicinity, and it was evident to all that it was much lighter in draft. While the number of spectators was large, and the enthusiasm waxed great, we expect a much larger attendance on May 1st at this place, when the Fayette Farmers' Club proposes holding its second annual fair. The last fair, as you remember, was a grand success, and we are informed that the prospects are much better for the coming one, a large number of entries of stock, poultry, agricultural implements, etc., having been already made. Hoping that you will be present on this occasion, we remain,

Yours respectfully, K.

A Reliable Produce Commission House.

It is a matter of no small importance to our readers to know of an establishment in the produce commission business worthy of complete reliability, and such a one we have in that of Messrs. D. McMillan & Co., General Produce Commission Merchants, located at No. 370 Penn avenue, opposite Fort Wayne and Cleveland Freight depots. The gentlemen composing this firm are men of undoubted integrity, of superior business attainments, of large and varied experience and of energy and capability necessary to conduct an immense trade; and being located as they are in the immediate vicinity of the freight depots and grain elevator, gives them unequaled facilities for handling grain of all kinds, seeds and hay in car load lots, which they make a specialty of, and in fact all articles of produce consigned to their care. Therefore shippers and dealers can rest assured that in trusting their consignments to the disposal of this firm they will receive active, prompt and undivided attention, and also nothing less than the very best returns the market will afford. They have the exclusive agency of the unrivalled brands of Family Flour, "Lowell Mills and Mahoning Valley," which they are prepared to furnish dealers with by the car load, or in quantities to suit, and in addition they keep on hand a stock of baker's and foundry flour. Taking into account the capacity of this house for doing an extensive business, their proximity to the produce marts of the city, their reputation for honesty and fair dealing, their extended business experience, their prompt and energetic attention to orders and consignments, we know of none that we can more cheerfully commend to the business community, and their patrons can expect entire satisfaction in all their dealings and intercourse with them. They also prepare and furnish weekly to their shippers and dealers an accurate price current of the market, giving the current rates and their views on the same, which will be furnished free to any shipper or dealer on application. They deserve and will command success.

STATE ITEMS.

LANCASTER wants a Board of Health.

PHOENIXVILLE butchers propose to post up the names of their debtors.

AND now is the season when country boys are admonished to stick to the farm.

THE spotted fever is raging in some sections of the State, especially in Chester county.

MEASLES have things their own way in some parts of Chester county, even shutting up the schools.

DESPITE the croakings of orchardists, the indications for an average peach crop are good in most sections of the State.

A WEATHER signal station has been established at Brownsville, and Dr. A. J. Huff has been appointed station master.

THE Grand Lodge of the Order of Knights of Pythias will be held in Reading on the 23d of July, to continue in session five days.

ALTOONA puts in the hours of a dull Sabbath by playing base ball. Four games were going on at different places at the same time last Sunday.

CAMP CREIGHTON, at Latrobe, is being laid out in fine landscape style, in anticipation of its ten days occupancy by the Duquesne Greys next Summer.

LEHIGH county cow said to have the happy knack of giving eleven quarts of rich milk at a milking. Statement has an udder side, undoubtedly.

MR. FRANK ANDARY'S race course, near Latrobe, and said to be one of the very best half mile tracks in the State, is being put in good condition for Spring training.

THE Pottsville authorities recently passed an ordinance prohibiting organ grinders and itinerate musicians generally from playing in the streets of the borough. Happy town!

CLEARFIELD is much pleased with its new experience as a local option or temperance town. Especially is it a good thing to have dry times when the raftsmen float about the town.

ED. KRATZER is a missing young man from Bridgeport, Clearfield county. He had sold at Brookville a lot of farm stuff and departed for his home with his money but has not yet reached there.

WORKINGMEN digging a cellar in Reading turned up a crock of copper coins and a few German kreutzers. The coins dated 1724 up to 1816. A skeleton and a stone wall was found near by the "treasure trove."

IN several townships of the State, where township clerks have failed to publish a full and complete statement of the financial condition of such townships, taxpayers have brought suit, and in every case collected the fine of $50 imposed for violating the law.

THE Waynesburg Republican gushingly says: "What a heavenly reflection it is to good citizens that all the bummers, soaks, swellheads, ten-cent beggars, dead beats, rot-gut suckers and dirty shirt-slobs have left the street since local option has held sway."

A DISPATCH from Milford says that an unknown man was found unconscious in a boat on the Delaware river at that place on Tuesday, and died shortly after. He was dressed in a dark suit and white shirt, and is evidently a printer from Tyrone, judging from papers found in his pocket.

THE fifteenth anniversary of the settlement of Rev. Wm. Smith, D. D., at the Miller's Run Presbyterian church, Washington county, which comes off on the 14th and 15th of May, promises to be a most pleasant occasion. Distinguished clergymen and other friends of the venerable pastor are expected from various sections of the country.

A WASHINGTON COUNTY farmer enjoys himself without molestation. His dog chases the neighbors' hens, his own hens dig up their gardens, his cow breaks down their fences, and his cats fight on their roofs. But his father died a maniac, and his grandmother was a respectable lunatic for thirteen years, and as he owns a couple of guns, and is quick tempered, the neighbors are wise in their generation and keep clear of him.

PERSONS in Westmoreland county who were in favor of license, deny the legality of the late election on the subject, on the ground that the return judges of the several townships did not meet together in convention, and count up the whole vote of the county, as in the case of other county elections. The question, it appears, was got before the Court in some way, and was decided against the views of the license advocates. They have appealed, and intend carrying the question up to the Supreme Court.

MRS. ELIZA BURD died in Bedford on Tuesday last, in her eighty-third year. She was the daughter of the Rev. Samuel Waugh, formerly pastor of the Silver Spring Church in Cumberland county. Her mother was Eliza Hoge, daughter of David Hoge, Esq., of Hogestown, who was Sheriff of Cumberland county when it embraced all of Pennsylvania west of the Susquehanna river. She was the widow of George W. Burd, who represented the Bedford district in Congress during Jackson's administration. His grandfather, Colonel James Burd, was sent in 1759 to this region of country with a body of Provincial troops. He followed the old Braddock road to the neighborhood of the Mount Braddock farm and from thence he made a road to the mouth of Redstone, known as "Burd's old road," and built Redstone Old Fort, on the present site of Brownsville.

—At Bremen, Ohio, last evening, Mrs. Kellenberger was shot and instantly killed by her brother-in-law, John Schmeltzer, while attempting to release some of her cattle that Schmeltzer had impounded, the cattle having trespassed on his premises. The son of Schmeltzer had encouraged her to attempt the release of the cattle, telling her not to fear the shooting. She was a widow and had a large family. Schmeltzer was arrested.

—Last Saturday night, at Earlington, Hopkins county, Ky., a miner named Holmand, in the employ of the St. Bernard Coal Company, was stamped to death by John Reardon. His head and face were terribly mangled and the skull crushed evidently by a boot heel.

It will be the end of June before the show will be in full blast.

WHAT IS VITALITY?

Science has not yet answered this conundrum. The principle of life, in spite of the researches of chemists, doctors and meta-physicians, remains unknown. We know, however, that when the blood is impure, the stomach inert, the bowels irregular, the liver disordered, or the nerves relaxed, this life sustaining principle, whatever it may be, is shorn of its active power, and that the body it animates languishes. We know, too, such of us as are capable of deriving knowledge from authenticated facts, that Hostetter's Stomach Bitters correct impurities of the blood, invigorate the stomach, regulate the bowels, tone the liver and brace the nerves, thereby combatting and subduing the leading morbid conditions which tend to shorten life. The average time of human existence might unquestionably be greatly lengthened by judicious stimulation, especially in the decline of life, and this famous preparation is undoubtedly the most wholesome stimulant at present known.

GREAT INDUCEMENTS OFFERED.
The owners of this beautiful property have decided to offer the remaining lots at such prices and terms as to place them within the reach of all. These lots are located in the midst of a large and increasing community, and adjacent to the most numerous and largest manufacturing establishments in the city such as steel works, locomotive works, furnaces, planing mills, bridge works, &c. It is just the place where mechanics and workingmen should buy a home. Fruit and shade trees on nearly every lot. Plenty of good, soft water. Every lot fronts on a 50 foot street. Churches and school houses near by. Property must advance more in this section than in any other part of the city.
